Yearbook Dedication

The Class of 2015 proudly dedicates this yearbook to retired Headmaster, Mr. James Conry who has given his life in service to his country, to his community, and to St. Bernard's Central Catholic High School. Equally deserving of our recognition is his wife, Mrs. Priscilla Conry who, with her passing on June 30, 2014, leaves us with lasting memories of her seated in the bleachers, cheering us on during almost every game of every sport. Mr. and Mrs. Conry have given us the profound gift of themselves throughout their many years of devotion to St. Bernard's. They have shared with us their sense of joy, love, fun and humor and when we venture off the campus and into the world, we will take their love with us because it is in us. They have taught us so well and we will move forward, understanding their example; that the firmest foundation of success and fulfillment is built on giving oneself in service to others.

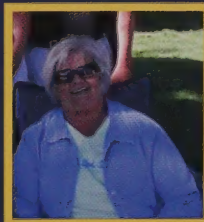

After having served in the Marines, Mr. Conry became a sergeant in the Fitchburg Police Department, and later a probation officer, which together made him well qualified to deal with teenagers all day long. Beginning with his position as Coach of the St. Bernard's Hockey Team in the early 80's, Mr. Conry became Athletic Director and Manager of the Activity Center. He went on to attain the position of Dean of Discipline while serving as a full-time teacher in the Social Studies Department. By 2003, he became Principal, and then Headmaster a year later. As Headmaster for ten years, Mr. Conry demonstrated a special joy in sharing his interest in history and in hockey. It is one thing to possess a love of any one subject, quite another to inspire others with it; and after long and challenging days as Headmaster and History teacher, Mr. Conry would go home to walk the dog, collect his wife and they would both spend the evening cheering, supporting, and mentoring their STB Hockey Team. And it wasn't just hockey; they were there at all the games with Mr. Conry standing sentinel by the "Dawg Pound" and his wife ever-present in the bleachers. They were always there for us, always supportive, no matter what.

Mr. Conry and St. Bernard's made their way together for twenty-three years and it was under his care that the school kept pace with both its present and future needs. He commandeered a variety of capital improvements to include the expansion of the athletic fields, construction of a new roof, and implementation of a new heating system. He looked to the future by introducing technology to the classroom and to the school's operation as a whole. As Headmaster, he was most proud of the fact that behind the scenes of so many costly improvements, he always balanced the budget. With a lengthy list of hard-won results, we now benefit from Mr. Conry's own lasting and tangible demonstrations of his service to the Church and to the school, often negotiated from the Headmaster's desk but also, from his own hands. His friend and colleague, Principal Robert Blanchard describes him as "a hands-on, in-the-trenches kind of guy" who, for many years, worked with Mr. Conry in an annual ritual of refinishing the gym floor. A true renaissance man, Mr. Conry could paint and refinish one day and the next, coach a game of hockey or discover another way to use his iPad with his students in History class.

While many people end their work at a set time each day, Mr. and Mrs. Conry's days merged into one lifetime together, sharing each loss and every victory with the kids of St. Bernard's. They taught us that true growth emerges from the principles of faith that never change. We, the Class of 2015, like all graduating classes, are now faced with a multitude of changes in our lives, leaving our homes to set our feet on new terrain. But there is a place we can always conjure in our hearts to calm our fears and inspire our courage. St. Bernard's is that place, endowed with a special meaning because of its people who will in some way continue to send messages from a future we cannot yet see. We leave St. Bernard's to find those special settings and moments that will one day mark an arrival, where we will be called to grow from right where we stand. Mr. and Mrs. Conry found that place when they first held hands in middle school on the B.F. Brown playground, a moment from which they created and nurtured a life and a family together in their hometown of Fitchburg. Theirs was a marriage between two best friends and it was their devotion to one another that made it all the more possible to share their mutual love and loyalty with us.

Mr. Conry is retired now but, he does stop by often with the dog during the day. Every night, he sets the alarm and locks up the school when it is quiet enough to pause and consider this lasting connection the soul of a place can have with the soul of a man, when life is reconciled with loss from each "Good Morning" to lockers slamming shut on one day after another. That is why it is important to endow remembrance with gratitude as we embrace the blessing Priscilla left to her husband that "the memory of her will be a happy one; to leave an afterglow of smiles when life is done." Together with Mr. Conry, we carry in our hearts a word from her Finnish origins: sisu. It means to be stoic, to be brave, to be resilient. The Class of 2015 hopes now to measure up to these qualities. We have been given a model in Mr. and Mrs. Conry with their devotion to each other and to family, their dedication to our school, and what we know to be their abiding love for us.

Dear Class of 2015,

It has been an honor to serve as your class advisors. Mrs. Bierfeldt and I will always look back on your class as one filled with humor, cleverness, and just the right amount of mischief. We appreciate all the support you've given us, your many ideas, and your dedication to making our four years at St. Bernard's exciting and fun. We will never forget our Sophomore Barbeque ("Don't touch those water balloons!"), our Junior Activities Day (where we all waited in vain for Danny Grammel to get hit with an egg), and our Freshman Movie Night (which no words can adequately describe). Thank you for being such a great class. We are proud to call ourselves your advisors.

Best wishes, always,
Mrs. Anderson and Mrs. Bierfeldt

"Goudie"

Congratulations Ceci. As your grandfather would say, "Don't Ever Change."

We are so proud of all your accomplishments throughout these years, and look forward to your future at St. Anselm College.

Love you, Mom and Dad

"A bird sitting on a tree is never afraid of the branch breaking, because her trust is not in the branch, but in her own wings."

Proficiat, het is je gelukt!

Dominique, we are so incredibly proud of you. Determination and dedication have brought you to where you are today and where you will go tomorrow. Be proud of your success - you are the one who made it happen. Keep pursuing your dreams. Always be kind to others and yourself.

Recognize the special people you encounter along the way. Laugh often.

Katie,

Since the moment you came into our lives, you have filled our hearts with love and an overwhelming sense of joy. We are grateful for every growing pain, laugh, smile and tear we have shared with you. You have grown into a beautiful, kind and smart young woman. We are so very proud of you!!

First Day of Pre-K

It seems like just yesterday when we were dropping you off at pre-K and you were holding on to me for dear life. Now it is us that is trying to hold on to you, to make the clock stop for just a moment. But we know we can't and with that we want you to know that we always support your dreams and aspirations. We will be by your side in the next step of your journey and wherever life may take you. We love you so much Katie! Our lives are better because you are here.

Love, Mom and Dad

First Day of 12th grade

Katie,

My bright and shining star!!!

You are ready to enter another phase in life.

Congratulations, you have worked so hard to get there.

Love you more,
Ma

Congratulations Kameko!

We are so proud of the beautiful woman you have become. Always remember to follow your heart to make your dreams come true. The most important thing in life is to search for and find true happiness.

Live each day to the fullest, spend special time with loved ones, and turn these precious moments into cherished memories. Do not look back with regret; instead, look forward with thankfulness and optimism. We will always be here to support and love you.

Love, Mom, Dad, Joe, Josh, & Gram

Time Flew By So Quickly

We can't begin to tell you
Just how loved you are
We can't believe how time has flown
And how you've come so far

Forgive us when we stop and stare
And tears fall from our eyes
Time flew by so quickly
Sure took us by surprise

We asked you to stay little
To always be our baby
You said, "I'll try to if I can, but,
I'll have to grow up...maybe."

Now here you stand before us
A respectful, honest woman
Strong-willed and determined
Who always says, "I can"

We flip through all your notes and cards
And pictures that you drew
Recall your quips and humor
'Unique', dear daughter, that's you!

There are no doubts within our minds
That you'll indeed succeed
Your future holds so much in store
But 'that smile' is all you need

You've always been so gentle,
So loving, kind and giving
Having you as our daughter, Alison
Is another term for 'living'

No matter where life leads you
No matter what you do
We'll always be your biggest fans
And we'll be here for you

Congratulations Alison, We love you!

Mom, Dad and Olivia

Congratulations Gabriella and The Class of 2015

"She's A Butterfly"

She remembers when she first got her wings
And how she opened up that day
she learned to sing
Then the colors came, erased the black and white
And her whole world changed
when she realized
She's a butterfly, pretty as the crimson sky
Nothing's ever gonna bring her down
And everywhere she goes
Everybody knows she's so glad to be alive
She's a butterfly
Like the purest light in a darkened world
So much hope inside such a lovely girl
You should see her fly, it's almost magical
It makes you wanna cry, she's so beautiful
God bless the butterfly,
give her the strength to fly
Never let her wings touch the ground
God bless the butterfly,
give her strength to fly
Never let her wings touch the ground

-Martina McBride

Gabriella,

You have been our little butterfly since the beginning, our free spirit, who loves life and isn't afraid to try new things. What a joy it's been watching you grow into a beautiful young woman, not just on the outside but on the inside where it truly counts. Thank you for always being that ray of sunshine that not only lights up the room but lights up our lives. Now it's time for you to spread your wings and fly! We wish you so much happiness as you begin your new journey in life. We thank God for blessing us with such an amazing daughter. Wherever life takes you, know that you are never alone and that you are loved.

Love,

Mamma, Dad, Gianna, Joey & Gracie <3

Don't Stop Thinking About Tomorrow!

Regina you began Freshman year doing many things,

Bowling team, Drama club and honor roll earnings!

Your confidence grew through Sophomore year,

As Drama Club became your friend - without stage fear!

Your roles got bigger in the Junior plays, and don't forget New York City and IMTA!

Your Senior year brought more modeling and shows,

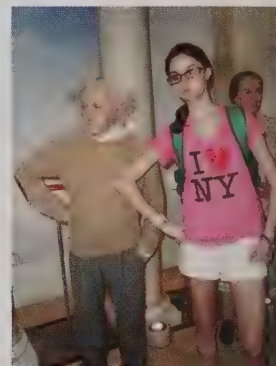

Where this will lead you God only knows.

High School years & Drama performances end may be in sight

but, you rule your life like a bird in flight!

We love and are SO PROUD of you!

Mommy & Daddy

Go Your Own Way!

Regina, Congratulations on all your achievements over the years. It all began with your artistic abilities, then your creative writing, then moving on to your love of Drama and recently your extreme interest in Modeling.

I'm sure you will do VERY well. I am VERY PROUD of YOU!

My Love Always, Grammy

EMILIA KAY,

We are so proud of the young lady that you have become. We know you will do well in the path that you choose. We love you very much Emilia!
